

10 Easy Steps to Help You Register for Classes

1. Log in to Web Advisor (wa.doane.edu) Click on Students. On the right side click on Student Planning under the Academic Planning section. (This will open a new window)

You will see your class schedule for the current semester on this page.

To add classes you can either select the Course Catalog (go to #3) if you know what class you would like to add, or you can click on My Progress (go to #4) and select a class depending on what requirement you are trying to fill.

2. Once you have selected Course Catalog you are going to select the course subject. Once you have selected one it will give you a list of classes you can take. In order to add courses simply click on the Add Course to Plan button. The course will appear on your schedule in the Plan & Schedule tab.

3. Once you have selected My Progress you are going to find what requirement you are looking to fill. Click on the Search button for the requirement you are looking to fill.

ART-101 Art Appreciation (3 Credits) Add Course to Plan

This course is an introduction to the methods and principles of the visual arts. The course is intended to expand the student's perception of the visual arts, through an examination of form and content. An understanding of the basic elements and principles of design of the visual arts will be an important part of this course. By the end of the semester, the student should be able to apply these terms properly to a work of art through written assignments, in-class discussions, and hands-on exercises, enabling them to explain how these visual elements and principles contribute to expression in works of art. The student should come to realize that works of art and design influence their daily life in many ways. Not intended for art majors.

Requisites: None

Locations: Crete, Lincoln, Grand Island, Omaha

Select the course that interests you by clicking on the Add Course to Plan button. Select the term you want to add the course to. If the course is variable credit you'll want to select how many credits you want to enroll for.

6. To get into a class click on the section on the left that corresponds to the time on your schedule when you would like to be in that class. The Section Details will pop up. Make sure that the details are all correct and then click Add Section to Schedule.

Repeat for all classes.

- Once your class has been added to your schedule it should appear a darker green or yellow. If it is still light colored you haven't added it. Retry #7 until the class is added.
- Once all your classes have been added to your schedule you are going to click Request Review. This will send your schedule to your advisor so that they can confirm your class schedule and approve your classes.

- If your advisor has already approved all your classes you can select Register Now on the right hand side above your schedule. Be sure to review your schedule and make sure that you are happy with the schedule.

Different View of your courses. This is also where you can easily remove planned courses from previous terms you didn't enroll in by clicking on the X.

The screenshot displays a web interface for course planning. At the top, a navigation bar includes 'Student Planning' and 'Plan & Schedule' (circled in orange). Below this is a search bar and a main heading 'Plan your Degree and Schedule your courses'. A secondary navigation bar contains 'Schedule', 'Timeline' (circled in orange), 'Advising', and 'Petitions & Waivers'. Two buttons, 'Remove Planned Courses' and 'Add a Term', are visible. The main content area is divided into columns for different terms: '16 Fall CAS: Crete', '17 Spring CAS: Crete', '2017 Fall CAS: Crete', and '2018 Spring'. Each column lists courses with their IDs, titles, and credit values. Some courses have a checkmark, while others have an 'X' icon, indicating they can be removed. The '2017 Fall' column shows three courses with 'X' icons: ART-101, LAR-303, and SOC-285.
